NEW YORKERS FOR CLEAN WATER & JOBS APPLAUDS SENATE MAJORITY LEADER ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS'S CALL TO REAUTHORIZE THE ENVIRONMENTAL BOND ACT

NEW YORK – New Yorkers for Clean Water and Jobs applauds Senate Majority Leader Andrea Stewart-Cousins for calling for the reauthorization of the New York State Environmental Bond Act. The NYS Environmental Bond Act would dedicate $3 billion to create jobs, protect clean water, modernize outdated water infrastructure, and address climate change.

Reauthorizing and passing the Bond Act on a statewide ballot is critical to New York's efforts to mitigate the effects of climate change, strengthen New York's green infrastructure, advance environmental justice and restart New York's economy. With a pandemic-fueled economic downturn and an ongoing climate crisis, New Yorkers need the NYS Environmental Bond Act now more than ever.

Senate Majority Leader Stewart-Cousins was an early supporter of the Bond Act. We commend her continued support and leadership on this critical issue.
